Would you like to work in professional partnership with a school (NSB) ranked as the top state comprehensive school in the East Midlands by The Sunday Times for 2022 and 2024, based on GCSE and A Level results?

The NSB Trust is seeking to appoint a Science Teacher to join our growing, co-educational, 11–16 academy, Northampton School. This post is initially as a one-year maternity cover, however, as the school continues to grow, there will be the opportunity for this to be made permanent the following year.

We are looking for applicants who share our ambitious, supportive and aspirational culture, and who can help deliver our curriculum to the highest standards while embracing the ethos, values and vision of The NSB Trust. You will work closely with the Head of Science to ensure consistency and excellence across the department.

About You

- A passionate teacher with a strong subject knowledge and a commitment to inspiring students in science.
- A collaborative colleague who will contribute to the development of the department and the wider school community.
- Someone who is enthusiastic about contributing to our vibrant extracurricular programme and helping students thrive beyond the classroom.
- Committed to continuous professional development and excited by the opportunity to grow within The NSB Trust.

What We Offer

- A brand-new, purpose-built school with exceptional facilities.
- An ambitious and supportive team environment.
- Extensive CPD and leadership development opportunities across The NSB Trust.
- The opportunity to be part of a growing school community from its early stages.
